Terms of Participation:

Registration: You can register individually or as a group. Please note that group numbers are limited, dependent upon the number of available places in each session. The minimum number of participants in each group is 5. The maximum number of participants in each group is 15.

Admission: Participants attend organized group sessions starting every hour. Each session is 3 hours long.

Additional Information:

At the end of the session, each team will receive a copy of their film. Please note that all films will be kept in the video store archive and at the disposal of Garage Center for Contemporary Culture and Michel Gondry. If you do not wish for your videos to be stored and used after your session, please let us know in advance.

We also ask that you not prepare any scenarios or bring any materials with you to the Home Movie Factory. Your creativity and imagination are central to the shooting process. Be open and improvise!
